Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Purchase Agreement

On May 29, 2024, Microchip Technology Incorporated (the “Company”) entered into a purchase agreement (“Purchase Agreement”) with J.P. Morgan Securities LLC and BofA Securities, Inc. as representatives of the initial purchasers (the “Initial Purchasers”), to issue and sell $1.1 billion aggregate principal amount of 11% Convertible Senior Notes due 2030 (the “Initial Notes”). In addition, the Company granted the Initial Purchasers a 13-day option to purchase up to an additional $150 million aggregate principal amount of such notes on the terms and conditions (the “Additional Notes” and together with the Initial Notes, the “Notes”). On May 30, 2024, the Initial Purchasers exercised their option to purchase the Additional Notes in full.

The Company offered and sold the Notes to the Initial Purchasers in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”). The Notes were subsequently resold by the Initial Purchasers to persons reasonably believed to be qualified institutional investors pursuant to the exemption from registration provided by Rule 144A under the Securities Act. The Company relies on these exemptions from registration based in part on representations made by the Initial Purchasers in the Purchase Agreement. The shares of the Company’s common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the “Common Stock”), issuable upon conversion of the Notes, if any, have not been registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from registration requirements.

To the extent that any shares of Common Stock are issued upon conversion of the Notes, they will be issued in connection with transactions anticipated to be exempt from registration under the Securities Act by virtue of Section 3(a)(10) of the Securities Act, because no commission or other remuneration is expected to be paid in connection with conversion of the Notes into any resulting issuance of shares of Common Stock.

Convertible Notes and the Indenture

The Company issued the Notes pursuant to an indenture, dated May 31, 2024 (the “Indenture”), by and between the Company and Computershare Trust Company, National Association, as trustee. The Notes are senior unsecured obligations of the Company. The Indenture includes customary covenants and sets forth certain events of default under which the Notes may be declared immediately due and payable and sets forth certain types of bankruptcy and insolvency events of default involving the Company after which the Notes become automatically due and payable.

The Notes will mature on June 1, 2030, unless earlier redeemed, repurchased or converted. The Notes will bear interest from May 31, 2024 at a rate of 0.75% per year payable semiannually in arrears on June 1 and December 1 of each year, beginning on December 1, 2024. The Notes will be convertible at the option of the noteholder, beginning on or prior to the close of business on the business day immediately preceding March 1, 2030, only under the following circumstances: (1) during any fiscal quarter commencing after the fiscal quarter ending on September 30, 2024 (and only during such fiscal quarter), if the last reported sale price of the Company’s Common Stock, for at least 30 consecutive trading days (whether or not consecutive) during a period of 30 consecutive trading days ending on, and including the trading day of the immediately preceding fiscal quarter is greater than or equal to 130% of the conversion price of the Notes on each applicable trading day; (2) during the five business day period after any five consecutive trading days (the “measurement period”) in which the trading price (as defined in the Indenture) per $1,000 principal amount of the Notes for each trading day of the measurement period was less than 98% of the product of the last reported sale price of the Company’s Common Stock and the conversion rate on each such trading day; (3) if the Company calls such Notes for redemption at any time prior to the close of business on the second scheduled trading day immediately preceding the maturity date; or (4) upon the occurrence of specified corporate events. On or after March 1, 2030, until the close of business on the second scheduled trading day immediately preceding the maturity date, holders may convert all or any portion of their Notes, in multiples of $1,000 principal amount, at the option of the holder regardless of the foregoing circumstances. Upon conversion, the Company will satisfy its conversion obligation by paying cash up to the unconverted principal amount of the Notes to be converted and pay or deliver, as the case may be, cash, shares of Common Stock, or a combination of cash and shares of Common Stock, at the Company’s election, in respect of the remainder of the conversion obligation in excess of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes being converted, in the manner specified, subject to the terms and conditions provided in the Indenture. The conversion rate for the Notes will initially be 121.84 shares of Common Stock per $1,000 principal amount of Notes, which is equivalent to an initial conversion price of approximately $121.84 per share of Common Stock. The conversion rate is subject to adjustment under certain circumstances in accordance with the terms of the Indenture.

The Company may not redeem the Notes prior to June 5, 2027. The Company may redeem for cash all or part of the Notes, at its option, on or after June 5, 2027, if the last reported sale price of Common Stock has been at least 130% of the conversion price then in effect for at least 20 trading days (whether or not consecutive), including the trading day immediately preceding the date on which the Company provides notice of redemption, during any consecutive trading day period, ending on and including the trading day preceding the date on which the Company provides notice of redemption, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed, plus any accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding, the redemption date. No sinking fund payments are required on the Notes, which means that the Company is not required to redeem or retire the Notes periodically.

If the last reported sale price of the Common Stock is less than the conversion price on the trading day immediately preceding the business day immediately preceding June 1, 2027, holders of the notes have the right to require the Company to repurchase for cash all or any portion of their notes on June 1, 2027 at a repurchase price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the notes to be repurchased, plus accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding, the redemption date.

A copy of the Indenture (including the form of the Note) is attached as Exhibit 4.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference (and this description is qualified in its entirety by reference to such filing).

The net proceeds from this offering were approximately $1.23 billion, after deducting the Initial Purchases of the Notes and commissions and the Company's estimated offering expenses. The Company used $105.0 million of the net proceeds of the offering to pay the cost of the capped call transactions described below. The Company intends to use the remainder of the net proceeds from the offering to repay existing debt including notes outstanding under the Company's commercial paper program.

Capped Call Transactions

On May 29, 2024 in connection with the pricing of the Notes, and on May 30, 2024 in connection with the Initial Purchases' exercise of the option to purchase Additional Notes, the Company entered into privately negotiated capped call transactions (the "Capped Call Transactions") with certain financial institutions (the "Option Counterparties"). The Capped Call Transactions cover, subject to anti-dilution adjustments, the number of shares of Common Stock underlying the Notes sold in the offering. The Capped Call Transactions are generally expected to reduce the dilution to the Common Stock upon any conversion of Notes and/or offset any cash payments the Company is required to make in excess of the principal amount of converted Notes, as the case may be, with such reduction and offset subject to a cap. The cap price of the Capped Call Transactions will initially be $167.23 per share, and is subject to certain adjustments under the terms of the Capped Call Transactions.

The Capped Call Transactions are separate transactions entered into by the Company with the Option Counterparties and are not part of the terms of the Notes and will not affect any holder's rights under the Notes. Holders of the Notes will not have any rights with respect to the Capped Call Transactions.

The foregoing description of the Capped Call Transactions is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the capped call transaction confirmation relating to the Capped Call Transactions attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
